25X1X

The airfield, about 2 1/2 miles north of BORISOV, (28° 31' E/54°12'N), White Russian MD, was occupied by about five biplanes (trainers). Take-offs and landings as well as individual parachute jumps were practiced from early May to June 1949.

25X1A

a. The airfield north of BORISOV, 2,500 x 3,300 feet, inclines slightly to the south and can hardly be expanded.

b. According to the little flying observed at the field it is assumed that no air unit is stationed there but that it is being used by DOSAV as a training field.
